Claws Off the Grass When it is Frosty, but Why?

Living in the Midwest we have our fair share of days that start off with Jack Frost decorating our yards, trees and even cars with ice. When this happens golf courses will not allow you on the course, putting green or even the driving range. But do you know why we do this? In an article by the USGA, Frost Delays: 5 Things Every Golfer Should Know, they do a nice job of explaining why frost delays are important. Click on the title to read the article.
